Born in Rajshahi Division, head quarter of North Bengal. He was experiencing the beauty of the nature in different parts of the north land from childhood. Since his childhood journey; Mr. DOZA has seen lots of historical monuments and buildings around the city and near by it. Those historical palaces, mosques and temples always attracted him as well. Mr. DOZA had the notion to see their details and tried to sketch in his drawing books. He grew up around these observable facts, and fixed aim to be an Architect. Mr. DOZA completed his graduation, Bachelor of Architecture (B. ARCH) from Architecture Discipline of University of Khulna in 1999. Finished his Master of Architecture, (M. ARCH) from Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) in 2008. Mr. Doza is the Fulltime Faculty and Assistant Professor of Architecture in the BRAC University of Bangladesh. Currently He is in study leave and now on, doing his PhD in History of Arts & Heritage Study, University of EVORA, Portugal. His journey to the art & architecture is fascinating and filled with full of observation and practice. This is his 5th Solo Sketch exhibition at abroad on Cultural Heritage, his previous four exhibitions were followed the same theme as well as focusing on Cultural Heritage of Bangladesh.
